The Authority may at their discretion provide the bidder with any materials or specialized equipment as needed.

54 EQUITABLE ADJUSTMENT

The Authority may, in its sole discretion, make an equitable adjustment in the Contract terms and/or pricing if pricing or availability of supply is affected by extreme and unforeseen volatility in the marketplace, that is, by circumstances that satisfy all the following criteria: (1) the volatility is due to causes wholly beyond the successful bidder's control, (2) the volatility affects the marketplace or industry, not just the particular successful bidder's source of supply, (3) the effect on pricing or availability of supply is substantial, and (4) the volatility so affects the successful bidder that continued performance of the Contract would result in a substantial loss. Any adjustment would require irrefutable evidence and written approval by the Assistant Director of Purchasing Services.

55 ESCALATION CLAUSE

The hourly rates shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change in the Average Hourly earnings of Production Workers in Other Services, as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. For any adjustment to commence on the first day of any exercised option period, the vendor's request for adjustment should be submitted 30 days prior to expiration of the then current contract term. The vendor adjustment request should not be in excess of the relevant pricing index change. If no adjustment request is received from the vendor, the Authority will assume that the vendor has agreed that the optional term may be exercised without pricing adjustment.

The Authority reserves the right to reject any price adjustments submitted by the vendor and/or to not exercise any otherwise available option period based on such price adjustments. Continuation of the contract beyond the initial period, and any option subsequently exercised, is an Authority prerogative, and not a right of the vendor. This prerogative will be exercised only when such continuation is clearly in the best interest of the Authority.
